

29 November 2012

easyJet CEO Carolyn McCall, OBE, joins the Board of the French Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain

The French Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain is delighted to welcome Carolyn McCall, OBE, as a new Member of its Board.

She stated: "I am truly delighted to be joining the board of the French Chamber of Commerce in GB. The chamber's reputation and success in representing the interests of over 600 Franco-British businesses is second to none. This appointment is a true recognition of easyJet's position as an important business link between the UK and France, easyJet's first and second largest markets respectively. I look forward to working with my fellow board members and contributing to the future success of this well respected business forum"

Carolyn has been Chief Executive Officer of easyJet since July 2010. Prior to that she was Chief Executive of Guardian Media Group, a Non-executive Director of Lloyds TSB from 2008 to 2009, Non-executive Director of Tesco from 2005 to 2008 and Non-executive Director of New Look from 1999 to 2005. Carolyn was Chair of Opportunity Now and a former President of Women in Advertising and Communications London (WACL). She has been a member of the Royal Academy Corporate Board for the last two years.

Carolyn was awarded the OBE for services to women in business in the Queen's Birthday Honours List in June 2008. In April 2008 she was named Veuve Clicquot Business Woman of the Year and in 2012, won the 'Woman of the Year Award' at the Women 1st Shine Awards 2012.

She graduated from Kent University with a BA in History and Politics, and from London University with a Masters in Politics.

easyJet is a Patron Member of the French Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain.