

The French Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain and the Royal Albert Hall sign a 3-year partnership

London, 11 June, 2014 – The French Chamber is pleased to announce that a new 3-year partnership have been signed with the Royal Albert Hall that will build synergies between the two organisations. The Chamber has also welcomed this renowned institution as a Patron member.

The partnership was signed yesterday during an exclusive Champagne at the RAH attended by more than 45 Patron members following which they had the opportunity to attend a Dress Rehearsal of the ballet Romeo & Juliet. The Royal Albert Hall, represented by Jasper Hope, Chief Operating Officer, will be hosting another event for the French Chamber's Patron members as well as a Breakfast for its Luxury Club in 2014.

The Royal Albert Hall is one of the world's most famous stages. Its auditorium hosts over 370 shows a year by the world's greatest artists. Opened in 1871 as part of Prince Albert's vision for a centre for the Arts and Sciences, the Hall is a registered charity which operates without public funding, remaining true to its founding ambitions within a modern context. Extending the brand with 200 events outside the auditorium, the Hall has broadened its appeal to younger, diverse audiences whilst still engaging its existing customers.

The French Chamber of Commerce in Great Britain's aims are to provide a platform of exchange and networking at the service of the Franco-British firms in the UK, to promote its 600 member companies' interests to key decision makers and to help develop economic and commercial relations between France and the UK. The 50 events we organise a year, offer great opportunities for our members to develop their business and expand their network of contacts. The French Chamber already has a number of valuable partnerships most notably with the Royal Opera House and the Financial Times.
